

New Officers Elected by Junior Wicks

Election of officers took place at the recent meeting of the Junior Wicks of the First Christian church at the home of the past president, Jo Beth Jackson.

Elected for 1956-57 were: Carol Donaher, president; Diane Cato, vice president; Karen Crossman, secretary; Barbara Zuborvich, corresponding secretary, and Linda Rowe, treasurer.

New chairmen appointed by the president were: Dorothy Bull, workshop; Jan Planz, study; Janet Coleman, service; Judy Bishop, assistant service chairman, and a committee, Carol Steinbaugh, Laura Gregg; Barbara Campbell, stewardship; Jo Beth Jackson, publicity; Grace Connett, chairman of the telephone committee composed of Susan Hayes and Beverly Jones.

Bonnie Barfield is decorations chairman. Serving with her will be Dorothy Bull, Willy Rijke, Trudy Church, Connie Conters, Janet Ruckel heads the food committee composed of Beverly Metzner and Peggy Webb.

Diane Cato will be in charge of entertainment. Assisting her will be Gwen Pattishall, Karen Sherburne, Jo Beth Jackson, Barbara Campbell, Barbara Zuborvich, Nancy Hornbeak and Karen Crossman are in charge of transportation.

The dinner for the evening was furnished by the sponsors, Mmes. Pauline Pattishall, Jean Broyles, Pauline Richard and W. W. Jackson.

Mrs. Esther Walker, president of the CWF, was a special guest.

Installation of officers will be held at the church at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 27 with Mrs. T. Beckwith, state Wicks sponsor, in charge.

Lutheran Women Name New Officers

Mrs. Elenora Durst was re-elected president of the Women of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance at their meeting Tuesday, Oct. 2.

Serving with her will be Mrs. Ben Freibert, vice president; Mrs. Carl Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Schildmeyer, treasurer.

Elected to serve as chairman of the American Lutheran Church Women's missionary federations projects, which the local group supports were Mmes. Marvin McCabe, Marlin Michnia, Donald Anderson, Julius Meier, Robert Cramer, Floyd Wentz, Fred Kilken and Donald Johnson.

Susan Is Ten

Susan Klaesges celebrated her 10th birthday last Saturday afternoon with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Klaesges, 2713 Monterey Ave.

Games were played and the birthday cake was the center of attraction. It was iced in green and held coral colored roses and a "Humpty Dumpty" made of sugar cubes.

After the games the girls were served the cake with ice cream.

Sam Levy to Address Pilot Club Tonight

Sam Levy, prominent civic leader of Torrance, will be the guest speaker of the Pilot Club of Torrance tonight at its regular October dinner meeting at a Lomita restaurant. Mr. Levy will address the members and other guests on "The Role of the Service Club in the Community."

The local Pilot club is celebrating the founding of its international organization at Maccon, Ga., on Oct. 18, 1921, with a charter membership of 40. Since that time Pilot International, which is one of the five international organized civic and service organizations for executive business and professional women, has grown to a total membership of some 11,000 made up of 390 clubs in seven countries. The local club, which was chartered last year, is one of 20 clubs in the State of California which have been organized within the last few years. Also joining the Pilots of Torrance in celebrating this occasion will be members of other women's service clubs in the area.

Pilot International's "Women of Service" took top honors in 1956 in the awards of the "Woman's Home Companion" magazine which each year honors 10 club women and 250 clubs which have made contributions of exceptional importance to their communities. Mrs. Freda Ameringer was named as Clubwoman of the Year, and two Pilots were among the nine given honorable mention. Listed on the honor roll of clubs which had achieved noteworthy success in making their communities a better place in which to live were 47 Pilot Clubs throughout the United States, several for the second and third year.

Scout Adults Study Events For the Year

Central Torrance Assn. of Girl Scout Adults held its first fall meeting at the Catholic annex on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lee Stamps, chairman, presided and reminded the group that each troop is responsible for two adults to solicit for Community Chest.

One or two cookie managers are needed for the annual cookie sale on Feb. 8-25, 1957. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Stamps.

The highlight of the evening was a report by senior scout Miss Ginny Sandstrom of Troop 1293 on the Girl Scout Roundup at Pontiac, Mich., from June 25 to July 15. Miss Sandstrom gave some humorous impressions of the trip and her experience of being lost in Colorado. Although the weather was hot at the roundup she told of the many places of interest she visited and her newly found friends. Also it was impressed on the Scout Adults that Miss Sandstrom's train fare to Michigan was paid through the sale of cookies. She has been a scout for eight years.

A song workshop is planned for Oct. 9 at the Gardena Community Center directed by Mrs. Carl Osterlind.

Calendars will be available soon for sale by Scouts throughout the area.

Any troop wishing to use Girl Scout equipment may do so by contacting Mrs. Stamps. The annex will be the location for all further meetings of the group.

Party Marks Missouri Day

Cartoon mules, a picture of Harry Truman, and Ozark "corn likker" in crockery punch bowls provided the atmosphere for the Missouri Day celebration given by Jack Hudson in his apartment in the Greenwood Court last Saturday. The "alleged reason" for the party was the 138th anniversary of Missouri's admission to the Union.

Rhymed invitations went out two weeks ago, summoning Hudson's friends and compatriots to the fete, which tied in by inference to the current political campaign. A fat plaster mule was the centerpiece for the buffet table. Two "stills" were set up in various rooms of the apartment, amid floral arrangements of yellow and bronze mums, yellow carnations, golden cockscomb, and trailing ivy.

Guests contributed to an impressionistic kitchen mural entitled "The Morning After," danced, played games, and sang to the accompaniment of Hank Heinlein's locally famous guitar.

The guest list included Messrs. and Mmes. Lou Dyer, Paul Harestad, Dean Capps, W. C. Boswell, Luke Nickol, Allen Pyeatt, M. A. Bauman, B. T. Whitney, Robert Foss, H. F. Heinlein, James Wood and Jack Norris.

Others were Miss Cathy Chisholm, Dr. Connie Turner, Mrs. Mary Lee Peters and Babs Whitley.

Out-of-town guests were Misses Beverly Hills, Shirley Pirschel, and Kris Westlund and Ed Olson of Manhattan Beach; Alex Slatem of Redondo; Harris Steiner of Montebello; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Oswald of Bellflower, and Miss Pat Hammel of Anaheim.

Stars of the Bird Cage Theatre at Knott's Berry Farm arrived after their final performance of the "mellodrama." They were Misses Beverly Trout, Condra Brooks and Debra Stuart and Skip Young.

Realty Unit Dance Party

Women's Council of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board is inviting the public to a Halloween party and dance, to be held at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 20, at the American Legion Hall located at 1109 Border Ave., Torrance.

A good time has been planned for adults and children. There will be games, a White Elephant Sale, refreshments and dancing to the music of a well known band. Costumes are optional.

Fred Hanson, realtor, will host for her brother. Mrs. W. C. Boswell acted as hostess for her brother.
